

8th February 2010

Dear Parents

As we approach the half term break I would just like to you remind you that Monday, 22nd February is a Staff Training Day. Therefore, girls should return to school on Tuesday, 23rd February. Enrichment activities will run as normal.

Also, please find enclosed the latest edition of The Belvedere Academy News Magazine. As you will see, the girls and staff have been very busy and I hope you enjoy reading about their involvement in a wide range of activities.

As ever, you can keep up with the latest developments at Belvedere by logging onto our website www.belvedereacademy.net.

I hope you have a good half term break and look forward to seeing the girls on 23rd.

Yours sincerely
